

June 4, 1967

Harriet J. Nordhof, Secretary
Holland Coin Club
300 W. 27th Street
Holland, Michigan 49423

Dear Harriet:

Congratulations to you and the club members of the Holland Coin Club. You have won First Place in Class C. Winner of second place is the Panhandle Coin Club of Chadron, Nebraska, winner of third place is the Totem Coin Club of Anchorage, Alaska. This was a close competition and you may feel very proud of winning.

Awards will be presented at the convention in Miami on Friday morning of the convention week, at the Awards Session immediately following the NCW Forum. Hope you will be able to attend both of these activities.

Please let us know by July 20th who will accept the award and pick up your book at the convention. If no one can attend, the book and award will be mailed to you after the convention.

A news release has been sent to The Holland Evening Sentinel, to the Editor. You may wish to contact him to provide more information or pictures.

Looking forward to seeing you in Florida, and once again our personal thanks and congratulations.

Yours truly,

Rick & Virginia Bronson

For Immediate Release

Holland Coin Club Wins National Coin Week Award

The Holland Coin Club has won first place in Class C in the National Coin Week publicity competition sponsored by the American Numismatic Association, a non-profit organization, chartered by Congress, with some 25,000 individual members and 1,200 member clubs. Class C competition was for clubs having less than 49 members. Competition for this award was spirited, and the winning club had to have an truly outstanding public relations program.

Activities undertaken by the Holland Coin Club which contributed to their success included the placement of exhibits in over 37 locations, attainment of newspaper, radio and television publicity, and numerous numismatic programs given by club members in support of National Coin Week. The club was led in this competition by their President, P. H. "Jim" Frans, who was selected as the American Numismatic Association's Outstanding Club Representative for the year 1966.

The club's activities were compiled into an impressive scrapbook, which was sent to the American Numismatic Association for judging. The club's scrapbook entry was truly exceptional, and the judges agreed unanimously that it was a definite first place winner.

(You may wish to contact Harriet J. Nordhof, 300 W. 27th St., Holland, Michigan who is Secretary of the Holland Coin Club. She may be able to furnish additional information to you.)

Submitted by:

Rick & Virginia Bronson
National Coin Week Co-Chairmen
6325-A Hunter Avenue
Richards-Gebaur AFB, Missouri 64030

June 4, 1967

Editor

The Bay City Times
Bay City, Michigan

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is an Immediate Release news item concerning Randy Streeter and the Saginaw Valley Coin Club. They have done an outstanding job of promoting National Coin Week in your area, and are to be congratulated on their successful work.

Thank you for all your assistance to the club. Without the support of the newspapers, radio and television stations and city officials, as well as the club members and individuals the success of this program would be impossible. Your assistance is sincerely appreciated by us all.

Yours truly,

Rick & Virginia Bronson

For Immediate Release

Two Local Winners of National Coin Week Awards

Randy Streeter, age 14, of Bay City has won First Place in Class J in the National Coin Week publicity competition sponsored by the American Numismatic Association, a non-profit organization, chartered by Congress, with some 25,000 individual members and 1,200 member clubs. Class J competition was for all junior members in the association between the ages of 11 and 21. Competition for this award was very spirited, and the winning junior had to have a truly outstanding public relations program. As this was the first year for this new category in Coin Week, it has been a much sought award by the juniors.

The Saginaw Valley Coin Club located in Bay City has won third place in Class A, for clubs with over 100 members. This was a very close competition this year, and the Saginaw Valley Club did a wonderful job. Some of their activities included having displays in 32 locations, radio and television publicity, and giving talks to numerous groups in support of National Coin Week.

Randy's and the Saginaw Valley Coin Club's activities were each compiled into separate scrapbooks, which were then sent to the American Numismatic Association for judging.

(Mrs. Donna Streeter of 900 Stanton, Bay City, Michigan 48706 may be able to furnish additional information and photos to you.)

Submitted by:

Rich & Virginia Bronson
National Coin Week Co-Chairmen
6325-A Hunter
Richards-Gebaur AFB, Missouri 64030

June 4, 1967

Editor
Corpus Christi Caller Times
Corpus Christi, Texas

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is an Immediate Release news item concerning the Liberty Coin Club of Corpus Christi. They have done an outstanding job of promoting National Coin Week in your area, and are to be congratulated on their successful work.

Thank you for all your assistance to the club. Without the support of the newspapers, radio and television stations, and city officials as well as the club members the success of this program would be impossible. Your assistance is sincerely appreciated by us all.

Yours truly,

Rick & Virginia Bronson

For Immediate Release

The Liberty Coin Club of Corpus Christi Wins National Coin Week Award

The Liberty Coin Club of Corpus Christi has won first place in Class A in the National Coin Week publicity competition sponsored by the American Numismatic Association, a non-profit organization, chartered by Congress, with some 25,000 individual members and 7,200 member clubs. Class A competition was for clubs having over 100 members. Competition for this award was spirited, and the winning club had to have a truly outstanding public relations program.

Activities undertaken by The Liberty Coin Club which contributed to their success included the placement of exhibits in 197 locations, attainment of extensive newspaper and magazine, radio and television publicity, and numerous numismatic programs given by club members in support of National Coin Week.

These activities were then compiled into an impressive "Texas" sized scrapbook, which was sent to the American Numismatic Association for judging. The club's scrapbook entry was truly exceptional, and the judges agreed unanimously that it was a definite first place winner.

(Clarence P. Davis is President of the Liberty Coin Club, and may be able to furnish additional information to you.)

Submitted by:

*Rick & Virginia Bronson
National Coin Week Co-Chairmen
6325-A Hunter
Richards-Gebaur AFB, Ma 64030*

June 4, 1967

Mr. James A. Greene
P.O. Box 182
Sparta, N. Carolina 28675

Dear Jim:

Congratulations!! You have won first place in Class D. Winner of second place is Valentine Pasvolsky of New Jersey, winner of third place is MSgt Sherrill Dunkin of Homestead, Florida. Competition was very good again this year, and you may feel very proud of winning.

Awards will be presented at the convention in Miami on Friday morning of the convention week, at the Awards Session immediately following the NCW Forum. Hope you will be able to attend both of these activities.

Please let us know by July 20th who will accept the award and pick up your book at the convention. If no one is able to do this, your book and award will be mailed immediately after the convention.

A news release has been sent to the Winston-Salem Journal. You may wish to contact the Editor to provide more information on pictures.

Looking forward to seeing you in Florida, and once again our personal thanks and congratulations!

Yours truly,

Rick & Virginia Bronson

Sparta School Principal Wins National Coin Week Award

James A. Greene, Principal of the Sparta Schools has won first place in Class D in the National Coin Week publicity competition sponsored by the American Numismatic Association, a non-profit organization, chartered by Congress, with some 25,000 individual members and 1,200 member clubs. Class D competition was for individuals within the 50 states of the United States and Washington, D.C. Competition for this award was spirited, and Jim had to have a truly outstanding public relations program.

Activities undertaken by Jim Greene which contributed to his success included exhibits placed in 63 locations, attainment of newspaper and radio publicity, ^{AND} giving numismatic talks to 41 non-numismatic groups. Jim talked for over 25 hours to a total of 1,085 people.

The scrapbook which Jim submitted to the American Numismatic Association for judging was an impressive one, and ^{WAS comprised of} ~~aptly compiled~~ pictures and letters covering his activities. The book is covered in green cloth with the association seal, theme for this year's Coin Week (Numismatics, Portrait of History), and dates embroidered in yellow. The book will be on display at the national convention in Florida in August. The scrapbook was truly exceptional, and the judges agreed unanimously that it was a definite first place winner.

(You may wish to contact James A. Greene, P.O. Box 182, Sparta, N.C. 28675. He would be able to furnish additional information to you.)

Submitted by:

Rick & Virginia Bronson
National Coin Week Co-Chairmen
6325-A Hunter Avenue
Richards-Gebaur AFB, Mo 64030

For Immediate Release

Isthmian Numismatic Society Wins National Coin Week Award

The Isthmian Numismatic Society has won First Place in Class X in the National Coin Week publicity competition sponsored by the American Numismatic Association, a non-profit organization with some 25,000 individual members and 1,200 member clubs. Class X competition was for ANA clubs located outside the United States. Competition for this award was spirited, and the winning club had to have an truly outstanding public relations program.

Activities undertaken by the Isthmian Numismatic Society which contributed to their success included the placement of exhibits in 7 locations, attainment of newspaper, radio and television publicity, and numismatic programs given by club members in support of National Coin Week.

The club's activities were compiled into an impressive scrapbook which was sent to the American Numismatic Association for judging. The club's scrapbook entry was truly exceptional, and the judges agreed unanimously that it was a definite first place winner.

(You may wish to contact Mr. Cato May, President of the Isthmian Numismatic Society, P.O. Box 1581, Canal Zone, for further information.)

Submitted by:

*Rick & Virginia Bronson
National Coin Week Co-Chairmen
6325-A Hunter Avenue
Richards-Gebaur AFB, Missouri 64030*